

CALUMET COUNTY FORAGE COUNCIL SUMMER FIELD DAY

THURSDAY, JULY 16, 2009

KEN & MARY RACH FARM

TWAIN ROAD, CHILTON

(COUNTY E 3¼ MILES WEST OF HIGHWAY 57, LEFT ½ MILE ON TWAIN ROAD)

- 10:00 am Registration and gathering time
- 10:15 am Welcome and introductions
- Adam Faust and Bryce Larson
- 10:30 am "Getting the Most from your Bunker/Pile Silos" - Do you know how much feed loss and shrink are costing you?
- Brian Holmes, UW Extension Biological Systems Engineering specialist
- 11:30 am "Moving Forages from Bags to Upright Silos Successfully" "How are You Managing Your Multiple Storage System?" - Hear how Ken and Jerry manage their system
- Ken Rach, Jerry Hillman (Henry Carstens & Sons nutritionist)
- 12:00 noon Lunch and fellowship (Provided by the Calumet County Forage Council)
- 1:00 pm "MFA Update" and "Presentation on Alfalfa Persistence Trials in Wisconsin" - How does your alfalfa cutting and management program affect your stand life quality and yield?
- Nick Schneider, UW Agriculture Agent Winnebago County, MFA Director
- 1:35 pm "Auto Trac on Haybines, Preventing Overlap in Corn Planting, Potential Usage with Liquid Manure Applications" - If you overlap 10 percent on hay cutting and tillage, how many extra acres with no yield or revenue are you farming?
- Todd Vogel, Riesterer and Schnell

Sponsors:

