

You are invited to attend the workshop!

If you have been asking yourself...

- How do I know if my child is ready to stay home alone?
- Can my child handle a variety of emergency situations if left alone?

...you'll want to attend this FREE workshop series.

This program will help parents, grandparents, and others develop the confidence and peace of mind to know when children are ready to stay home alone. BOTH adults and their children (age 8 and older) are required to attend together. Participants will learn more about first aid, fire safety, gas and electric safety, personal safety, how to use the internet safely and how to develop their customized home alone plan.
